

Charlie Lennon

January 1, 2018 - September 12, 2022

Charlie Lennon - our Gucci bun was a sweet sassy lady that took our hearts from day one. She was our late Wilson's partner and they loved each other dearly.

Charlie was so special to us all. She always made you laugh and loved every moment of her life. Jack recently became her partner and he also loved her.

She will be missed by our family. Hopefully she is heaven with her Wilson now.

Binky free sweet little girl. Mama loves you always.
