

James "Wilson" Younts

June 17, 2017 - June 1, 2021

A few years ago, a bunny was surrendered to a rescue. I had no intentions of getting another bunny but those big blue eyes could melt the toughest of hearts. I put my hand in his cage, gave him a moment and he pulled my finger in under his chin, and that was that...

He became my Wilson.

This little guy had the best attitude towards everyone he met. He was such an attention bun that he would go out of his way to greet anyone that walked by.. wanting to be apart of every aspect of life. So curious and full of happiness and life.

Wilson even took Charlie Lennon to be his bun wife. I never thought any bun would partner up with Charlie Girl, but Wilson fell in love with her and vice versa. They were a beautiful pair of sweethearts.

Our family lost a huge piece of our heart. My Wilson laid in my arms and went peacefully across the rainbow bridge. I don't have words right now and probably never will. He was such a joy to have in our family, always happy even til the end. I reminded him as he laid on my heart, how much he was loved, treasured and that it was ok if he needed to go.

Mama loves you always Wilson. Paisley and Lacey will show you the way to the carrots and kale. Binkley free my love.
