Sere,

My life will never be the same without you my precious oversized bodyguard. You have been mommy's protector, my boo-boo kisser, the keeper of all my secrets, my shoulder to cry on, and my best friend since day one! We've had a bond that no one would believe unless they seen it firsthand. You've laid on me and messed with my face trying to get me to come out of seizures, you would paw and lick my forehead when you sensed I was suffering with migraines, I was the only person that you would climb on, if anyone so much as raised their voice at me you would sucker them into giving you a treat just so you could bite them even if it was days later. I miss being able to start each day by telling my best friend good morning and getting one of your kisses then making you breakfast and ending each night by giving you a snack, letting you know how much I love you and kissing you goodnight. I know your back with your brother Jagger so that gives me some comfort, but Sere just know that you touched my heart in a way that no other living creature ever has. Thank you for loving me for all my imperfections because I will never be the same now that your gone!

Daddy misses his little "Bulldog" aka "Scrappy-Doo"! It's not the same when your favorite commercial comes on, or being able to clap for you showing off your strong muscles climbing up the side of the cage instead of using the ramps, waiting for your dinner plate or special weekend breakfast. Don't be tossing Jagger around in heaven like you did down here! We'll keep an endless supply of peanut butter m&m's on hand for the two of you if you ever want to come visit.

Just remember Sere no one will ever miss you as much as mommy does because no one could ever love you more than I do!! You were my life and always will be! I love and miss you forever until I see you again my precious baby boy xoxo 🥺👉❤
